Scope

This appraisal values the hub as a brand and product-routing proof asset (positioning + editorial credibility + mobile launcher guidance). It excludes the standalone valuation of the four linked applications, which are separate deploys and can be appraised individually.

Included

- Single-page hub with product suite cards and feature chips.
- Embedded editorial section (dispatches/essays) used as proof content.
- Mobile launcher guidance (add-to-home-screen flow).
- External routing to the four product applications.

Excluded

- Standalone valuation of FamilyMed Passport, KidMed Passport, Family Command, and Little Linguist (valued separately).
- Traffic history, rankings, conversion performance, or revenue-based valuation.

Appendix

Observed on-page features (public evidence)

- Four-product suite presented with clear value props and launch links.

- Editorial section includes a featured founder letter and multiple topic dispatches (health, privacy, design, education).

- Mobile launcher section explains add-to-home-screen and positions the hub as a free, account-less launchpad.

- Footer includes practical medical disclaimer (not medical advice; emergency guidance).
